Where to go...

Trips around Tübingen

Hohenzollern castle is an outstanding example for German romanticism. About 25 km South of Tübingen, the castle is situated on a prominent spur of the Swabian Alb. On clear days it can be spotted in the distance from points of view in Tübingen, like the castle of Hohentübingen. Hohenzollern is one of the most frequently visited sights of the Swabian Alb.

There is one daily connection to Hohenzollern using public transportation. Take the IRE train 11:01 to Hechingen, there change to bus No. 2. Tell the driver to take you to the castle and also to pick you up in the afternoon. The return connection starts 16:10 at the castle to reach the train 16:37 in Hechingen. The trip is not included in the conference bus ticket. You need a 3-zone Naldo ticket.

Bebenhausen

is located in Schönbuch, not far from Tübingen. It is worth seeing the centre of the village, including the former Cistercian abbey of 1187 with a triple ringwall and a chapel. The area was later used as a hunting lodge by the kings of Württemberg and it served as a retirement home for the last royal couple after their abdication. Bebenhausen is a short 4 km walk from the Max Planck Campus. Alternatively, take bus no. 826/828 from downtown.
